Preamble

Genesis

Indian Institute of Public Health (IIPH) Gandhinagar was established in 2007 through an MOU between Government of Gujarat and Public Health Foundation of India (PHFI). The institute is governed by independent governing council with representation from Government of Gujarat and Public Health Foundation of India. It has an independent chairman of the Governing council. Indian Institute of Public Health Gandhinagar (IIPHG), is the first of the five institute's setup by PHFI.

After signing the MoU 50 acre land was donated by Gujarat Government for the construction of its University campus. IIPHG has total built up Area – 130,000 sq ft. The foundation stone was laid by the honourable Prime Minister of India, Shri. Narendra Modi (the then Chief Minister of Gujarat) in 2007.

IIPHG was conferred the status of 1st Public Health University in the country, by Indian Institute of Public Health Gandhinagar (IIPHG) Act 2015 of Gujarat State (Gujarat Act No.2 of 2015) which came into force on 2nd May, 2015, through Government of Gujarat Notification No.GH/SH/GP-7/GHS/102014-1246-T.

The state-of-the-art new campus of the Indian Institute of Public Health–Gandhinagar (IIPHG), was inaugurated by Sri. Vijaybhai Rupani, Honourable Chief Minister of Gujarat inaugurated on 25th October, 2016. The institute aspires to become equivalent of IIM or IIT for Public Health.

IIPHG is spread over a modern educational and research campus. The campus includes teaching facility for 300 students, including laboratories, modern classrooms, amphitheatre, library, seminar halls, computer laboratories, Canteen and hostel. Institute has 22 highly qualified faculties and also draws upon the strengths of large pool of faculty and researchers of Public Health Foundation of India.

IIPHG is actively involved in various research projects with national and international funding agencies and universities. Institute is also supporting State Government through locally relevant programme and policy research, evaluations and training. The institute currently offers five full time courses namely;

1. Master of Public Health (MPH),
2. Masters of Hospital Administration (MHA)
3. Post Graduate Diploma in Public Health (PGDPHM)
4. Associate Fellow in Industrial Health (AFIH).
5. Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D)

The Institute also offers several e-learning programme and need based short term training programmes. IIPHG already has linkages with several foreign and national universities, research institutes and organisations. Faculty spend half of their time in research and supporting government.

Vision:

To strengthen India's public health institutional and systems capability and provide knowledge to achieve better health outcomes for all.

Mission:

To develop a public health workforce and set standards, advance public health research and technology, strengthen knowledge application and evidence-informed public health practice and policy.

Being the First Public Health University and prominent public health research and training institution, IIPHG is offering practice oriented courses to strengthen health systems. IIPHG strives for academic excellence in Public Health, hospital and health system management.
